Appendix 9.2: Site Photographs

Photograph 1: View of the existing substation and the southern section of the Site from NGR NH 35926 08033.

Photograph 2: View across the main development site from the edge of the watercourse formed as part of the mitigation for the existing substation.

Photograph 3: View from the south along the watercourse formed as part of the mitigation for the existing substation.

Photograph 4: View across the main development site from the east showing planting forming mitigation as part of the existing substation scheme.

Photograph 5: Existing compound within the Site.

Photograph 6: Existing planting and bunding for screening on the southwestern section of the Site.

Photograph 7: View across the Site from the southeast (near NGR NH 36030 08097).

Photograph 8: View across the Site to the existing substation from the east and an area of mitigation planting.

Photograph 9: View northeast across the eastern section of the SSE Ownership Area showing mitigation planting.

Photograph 10: View south across the eastern section of the SSE Ownership Area showing mitigation planting.

Photograph 11: View north along a possible section of collapsed wall, or edge of a former river channel, located adjacent to the stream in the eastern section of the SSE Land Ownership Area.

Photograph 12: detailed view of a possible section of collapsed wall, or edge of a former river channel, located adjacent to the stream in the eastern section of the SSE Land Ownership Area.

Photograph 13: View towards the Site from Torr Dhuin Fort (SM794).

Photograph 14: View north towards the Site from the edge of the Caledonian Canal (SM6497) looking across the River Oich.