

The Planning process

Development considerations

Engineering Considerations

Construction of the underground cable

Images

Cable route

Other projects in the area

Have your say

Handling feedback and information

Scottish & Southern Electricity Networks
TRANSMISSION

Are you still at school, college, university or you currently have a job and are looking to come into the energy industry? We have lots of opportunities as the SSEN Transmission business grows!

We have various programmes suitable for all levels and fantastic development to ensure you have a sustainable career within the industry. You will have the opportunity to gain qualifications up to degree level whilst earning a salary and gaining vital experience in one of the fastest moving businesses on the journey to net zero.

To find out more about our:

- Apprenticeships
- Trainee Engineer
- Graduate Apprenticeships
- Graduate programmes
- Summer placement programme
- Existing job vacancies

See a group of staff members at the bottom of the banner.

Information on the table:

- Brochures and leaflets
- Yellow safety helmets
- White papers and documents
- Laptop
- Black water bottle
- Large cable specimen with copper strands exposed