

An aerial photograph of a rural landscape in Strathpeffer, Scotland. The map shows a mix of green fields, brown plowed land, and dense forests. A road, A834, runs vertically through the right side of the image. A road, A835, runs horizontally across the bottom. A small orange rectangle marks a specific site location. Arrows point from text labels to various features: 'Strathpeffer' points to a village in the top right; 'Site location' points to the orange rectangle; 'Contin' points to a village in the bottom left; 'A834' points to the vertical road; and 'A835' points to the horizontal road.
